JUDGMENT

Petitioner has an item of land and her complaint is that the revenue authorities are interfering with her possession on some allegation referable to an action taken by her of having unloaded some mud or sand in that property. She has made Ext.P5 complaint to the Revenue Divisional Officer in that regard. Therefore, I am sure in my mind that she cannot get interlocutory order from this Court, in any manner, stultifying the legitimate action by the revenue authorities, if such proceedings are to follow against her. Under such circumstances, without prejudice to any of the rights of the petitioner, this writ petition is disposed of directing that Ext.P5 will be taken up by the R.D.O. and an appropriate decision will be taken after looking into the grievance of the petitioner and by calling for necessary reports from the subordinate revenue authorities.

THOTTATHIL B. RADHAKRISHNAN, JUDGE.
